Project M Web Copy:

Are you a local musician with a notebook full of killer lyrics? Can you win a crowd over with your wit and charm? Most importantly, have you ever gone to see another local artist and thought, "I could take them?"

Put your talent where your mouth is with Triple M's first-ever reality show: Project M.

Sponsored by Old Style, Project M will start with 10 of Madison's finest musicians. Each week the artists will be given a challenge and will return the next week to perform that challenge. And each week, one artist will be asked to pack their guitar case and leave the stage. At the end, there'll be just one left—will it be you?

If it is, one of your songs will be placed in regular rotation on Triple M for one month!
